

A PRACTICAL WAY TO VOLUNTEER!

Volunteering with the State Office of Victim Assistance was designed to accommodate your busy schedule. Communication with the Coordinator is made easy via email, fax or phone conference; therefore, volunteers are only required to meet with the Coordinator 2 months prior to each regional training! So, take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to be a part of the State Office of Victim Assistance in a practical way!

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

VOLUNTEERING... WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

AN OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PURPOSE

Are you looking for a way to contribute to your community by volunteering? The SOVA Volunteer program may be the right fit for you! The SOVA Outreach Volunteer Program of the Fourth Judicial Circuit is an extension of the State of Victim Assistance, (SOVA), an Office of the Governor. This volunteer program was developed to assist the Outreach Victim Services Coordinator of the Fourth Judicial Circuit with coordinating and facilitating of two annual regional training events.

VOLUNTEER JOB DUTIES

Volunteers are assigned various projects by the SOVA Lead Outreach Victim Services Coordinator in preparation for two regional training events. Job duties of each volunteer include but are not limited to: assemble training packets, design sign-in sheets, photocopying training materials, collecting donations, registration, certificates, assist with vendors and speakers, training signs, greeter, and design name badges.

HOW CAN YOU BENEFIT?

You want to know what's in it for you, right? The SOVA Volunteer program gives citizens from the community the opportunity to collaborate with the State Office of Victim Assistance. There will also be several networking opportunities with various reputable agencies such as local law enforcement, the Solicitor's Office, non-profit organizations and several state agencies. As a SOVA Volunteer, you will be collaborating and building partnerships throughout the community. Volunteers will also enhance their leadership skills by assisting with the planning and coordination of two annual training events.
